MEMO ENDORSED

Re: United States v. Miles Talreja, 20 CR 233 (JFK)

Dear Judge Keenan:

I respectfully request a modification of the travel restrictions for my client, Miles Talreja, to include the District of New Jersey. The government consents to this application, as does the Pretrial Services Officer supervising Mr. Talreja.

Mr. Talreja currently resides in an apartment in Manhattan. He would like to relocate to an apartment in the vicinity of Jersey City or Hoboken in order to save a substantial amount on monthly rent. He has looked at apartments online but would like to inspect them in person. Mr. Talreja has discussed with Pretrial Services his desire to move to a less expensive apartment in New Jersey, and his supervising officer does not object to such a move if the Court approves the expansion of Mr. Talreja's travel restrictions to include New Jersey. Mr. Talreja will, of course, keep Pretrial Services apprised of any planned move well in advance of a move-in date.

Presently, Mr. Talreja is monitored by Pretrial Services via GPS monitor and awaits sentencing while free on a $100,000 personal recognizance bond. His current travel restrictions include only the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York.

Respectfully submitted,

Ilene Jaroslaw
